Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends of Christ Church,

Courage to speak up for what is right

Sometimes we might see something that seems unfair. The question is: what will we do about it? Do we pretend we haven't noticed? Do we say something to someone? Do we ask for advice?

This week we have been thinking about the work of nineteenth and twentieth century suffragettes. Individuals such as Emmeline Pankhurst showed great courage as they fought long and hard to give women the same opportunities as men: to vote and to stand for election.

As Christians we should always be ready to help and speak up for the rights of people who are treated unfairly. Why? Because we believe it's the right thing to do.

Rupert Kaye,
Headteacher
