Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends of Christ Church,

Easter service

I’d like to begin by saying an enormous “THANK YOU” to all of the Christ Church parents, carers, nans, granddads, aunts, uncles and friends of the school who attended today’s Easter celebration at the parish church. Thank you for joining in singing “Lord of the dance” – one of the children’s favourite hymns.

And an equally big “THANK YOU” goes out to all of the wonderful Christ Church staff and children for working so very hard to prepare for our Easter service. This year’s Easter gardens looked fabulous and led to lots of conversations about the real message of Easter: an empty tomb and the risen Lord Jesus: God’s power over death.

Rupert Kaye,
Headteacher
