Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends of Christ Church,

Rocktapus return to Christ Church

Yes! Frome's biggest rock band for children will be performing at our Mother's Day service in school on Friday 24th March at 2.30pm. Andy and Tom will be joining us to sing our very own Mother's Day song and will stay around to sell and sign albums afterwards. (Usually £10 per CD, but available for £6 on Friday – with £1 from every sale donated to the Comic Relief charity.)

Wear something red

Red Nose Day will be an opportunity for everyone to wear something red. This can be either full-on red mufti or just something red to accessorise a regular school uniform. Don't forget to bring in your £1 Red Nose Day donation ... plus an extra £1 if you'd like to buy a red nose from school ... and £6 if you'd like to buy a signed Rocktapus CD.

Rupert Kaye,
Headteacher

Value focus:

Forgiveness
means ... we forgive other people and make friends again

This week's Bible reference:

"Jesus took the cup of wine and said to his disciples, 'this is my blood, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.'"
(Matthew 26:27–28)

Our five core Christian values:
Respect Thankfulness Perseverance Forgiveness Responsibility

No toys or games from home please!

We are asking that no toys or games be brought into school from home.

We do not want toys from home to become lost or broken, or to distract children from their school work.

As you can imagine, our classrooms are already filled with items to keep us busy!

Thank you for your cooperation and support.
