Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends of Christ Church,

Free to think. Free to believe. Free to worship.

Sadly, sometimes bad things happen to good people because of unfair laws or corrupt officials. The Bible tells us that long, long ago Daniel was the victim of both. Today, we'd call Daniel "a prisoner of conscience" – imprisoned because he broke the (unfair) laws of the country in which he lived; laws which made it illegal to pray to God.

We thank God for the work of Amnesty International – working to support people around the world today who are not able to worship or express their beliefs freely and peacefully. We pray that God will give persecuted people – and each of us – the courage to stand up for what is right, and to be thankful for the freedoms we enjoy day by day.

Rupert Kaye,
Headteacher
